

Student Scholarships • Meals & Lodging Included

January 6-8, 2022

Join Us on Duck Key, FL

Everglades Restoration: Investing in a Climate Resilient Future

37th Annual Everglades Coalition Conference • #EVC02022

You're invited to the largest forum for discussion on Everglades restoration, presented by the Everglades Coalition. Join 300+ participants including elected leaders, policymakers, scientists, advocates, business owners, and others – all for free!

Scholarships Available • Apply by November 9th

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- Three nights of hotel accommodations at Hawk's Cay Resort on Duck Key, FL from Thursday, January 6, 2022 through Sunday, January 9, 2022
- Free conference registration & all conference materials provided
- Breakfast, lunch, and dinner provided on Friday & Saturday
- Connections with peers from various academic institutions to share, learn, question and discuss timely & pressing environmental issues
- Pairing with an expert mentor for guidance and career-building
- A variety of conference sessions with expert panelists
- Opportunities to meet elected & community leaders
- Networking and career-building experiences

Students that choose to apply will be responsible for their own travel to and from the conference, and must be willing to adhere to COVID-safe protocols. High school and college students (18+) welcome to apply.

Apply by November 9th via online link at <https://forms.gle/LqAmGPZqmnsV8Djy8>

Contact info@evergladescoalition.org with questions or for more information

100 YEARS

Conference registration, hotel accommodations and all meals sponsored by the Everglades Coalition with the generous support of National Parks Conservation Association